OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subj:- Contributory Health Service Scheme for staff members of the Atomic Energy Education Society:-

It has been decided to amend the Contributory Health Service Scheme (CHSS) applicable to the members of staff of Atomic Energy Education Society stationed at Bombay introduced vide this Department's O.M. No. 22/1/76-CCS/315 dated March 27, 1979, to enable their dependent relatives to avail of CHSS facilities. Accordingly para 1 of the aforesaid O.M. dated March 27, 1977 is substituted as under.

1. General

1.(1) Only the employees and members of their families including parents will be registered. The admission of parents will be based on the criteria of the revised CHSS orders of 21.4.1975.

1.(2) Notwithstanding what has been stated above, employees may be eligible to register under the scheme one of their relatives, who is entirely dependent upon and residing with them, on payment of an additional contribution at a rate equal to the average per capita expenditure (without any element of subsidy) borne by the scheme in the preceding year. This additional contribution would be payable for a minimum period of one year even when benefits are availed of for a period shorter than this. Further, before the request for registration in this regard is entertained, the relative must have actually been staying with the employee concerned for a minimum period of 60 days. Benefits of the scheme will be allowed to relatives on the same scale as admissible to members of the family.
