OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub : Contributory Health Services Scheme - clarification
Regarding recovery of contribution towards CHSS membership from Dr. K. S. Krishnan Research Associates.

In terms of Clause No.13.2 of the Contributory Health Services Scheme read with DAE's Office Memorandum No.1/7/99/IR&W/200 dated July 27, 2000, CHSS contribution @ 1 % of the Stipend/Scholarship/Fellowship payable to the trainees have to be recovered for providing medical facilities under the Scheme to the trainees during the period of training. However, it is understood that in the absence of specific guidelines as to the recovery of contribution towards CHSS membership from the Dr. K.S. Krishnan Research Associates being inducted at R&D Organisations of the DAE, an amount of Rs.260/- per month i.e. at the rates as applicable to the Visiting Scientists/Fellows/Professors is being deducted from them. Scientific Secretary, BRNS has now clarified that the Dr. K.S. Krishnan Associates are likely to be absorbed against regular vacancies and they could be treated on par with all other trainees.

In view of the above, it is clarified that contribution at the rate of 1% of Stipend/Scholarship/Fellowship will be recovered from the Dr. K.S. Research Associateship as in the case of trainees as envisaged in Rule 13.2 of the CHSS Rules.
