Sub : CHSS contribution - clarification.

IFA, BARC may please refer to his ID Note No. BARC/Accts/Med/98-99 dated April 15, 1999 on the above subject.

In this connection, it may be stated that as per the CHSS Rules, the recovery is to be made from those who are in service and has no connection with the persons already retired from service. It is ~~to~~ further pointed out that after retirement of the husband from service, the wife being a serving employee became the prime beneficiary and in natural course, she has to pay the contribution on the basis of her pay slab. In view of this, it is regretted that it is not be possible to make any changes in the recovery system.
